For more than 150 years, the Ancient Order of Hibernians has held a ceremony at the Black Rock to honour the dead interred there – the Walk to the Stone.

Since 2014 the Walk is being dedicated to supporting and showcasing the ongoing efforts by the Irish Community through the Montreal Irish Monument Park Foundation to develop the Black Rock site into a lasting and suitable memorial to the story of 1847.

When: Sunday, May 28, 2017
Where: St. Gabriel's Church
2157 Centre Street, Montreal

Mass begins at 10:30, followed by the Walk at noon. Food and drink will be provided after the Walk in the hall.

Transportation for those with difficulty walking generously provided by the Montreal Irish Monument Park Foundation.

Please. Join us at this special remembrance and add your voice to this important 1847 initiative and help Preserve from Desecration the Remains of 6000 .....
